True Green Kids: 100 Things You Can Do To Save The Planet

Synopsis

True Green Kids is the one book every home should have for the next generation. This vital childrenâ™s title is an innovative collection of fun and practical ways to help kids become agents for environmental change in their world. With fresh, new strategies and a bright, friendly design, True Green Kids invites the whole family to embark on an eco-adventure through a series of fun ideas that can be applied everywhere from the living room to the local park. Underscoring its message of individual awareness and action with beautiful color illustrations and lively text, the book puts an energetic spin on conservation, making environmental stewardship exciting and empowering for young kids. With a foreword by Clean Up the World Ambassador and National Geographic Emerging Explorer David de Rothschild, this volume brings the core message that you can make a difference to a younger audience in an engaging, educational way. While primarily aimed at kids, the book also encourages the active involvement of parents, teachers, and other members of the community, making it a vital addition to every library, home, and classroom.

Customer Reviews

I have purchased dozens of these books...I donate a copy to every school where I perform an environmental assembly program. It is colorful, an easy read, and full of great ideas any child can share with there family, school, and community to help take care of the environment. I highly recommend this book for elementary schools!

Quality book for my son to learn more about how we effect the world we live in. Good reading.

This is a MUST HAVE book for every family and every classroom in USA. I borrowed it from the library and now just purchased it here (used) on , because this book is not your usual boring environmental book; it is a well-written book for kids (but not only!) filled with lots of fun and easy to apply ideas about how we can make our home planet a better place for us and the generations to come. Start helping the environment by buying it used :)
