Customer Reviews

Every Protestant, nay, anyone interested in the "whys" and nature of the Reformation should read this book. Luther gives here the true meaning of Sola Scriptura which is not a rejection of tradition or of the living faith of the Church through the ages, but how tradition should serve the Scriptures and spring out of/live from the Word of God (he doesn't say it like that, but the way he writes about Church councils and Church Fathers amounts to saying that). A must for anyone who wants to understand where the "mature" Luther is "coming from."

Excellent!
