Customer Reviews

Recently purchased this ok and two others for my grandsons after they went to their first NHL game! They are ages 6 & 9 and read them in a day! Now they are reading them to their 3yr old brother! Love their enthusiasm for reading!

I bought Backup Goalie, Hockey Meltdown and Face-Off for my 6 year old grandson (since he LOVES hockey) to read during the summer . They were a little old for him and he needed help with some of the words but he absolutely loved them!

I selected three Jake Maddox hockey books for my first-grade grandson as part of his Easter basket. He absolutely loves the books and is reading them almost totally on his own. I hope there are more Jake Maddox books on the way. Books about interests for boys and specifically for early elementary age are hard to find.

My son enjoyed this book very much. He used it for a school book report. Book was exactly as described.

My students love the Jake Maddox books! They really fly off the shelf, and this one about football is one of the most popular.

I liked this hockey story and would maybe like to see some longer chapters. This book is serious and bit sad. Jake Maddox should write more books like this.

My son is a hockey player and loved these books...he was able to read them in an hour or so. Very quick read for third grader but fun!

Our seven year old hockey player loved this book! He could relate to the story as he plays hockey and lives hockey!
