Customer Reviews

I received a copy of this book to review on my blog and was impressed enough I decided to review it here too! I think it's a really great book for introducing soccer vocabulary and concepts to toddlers and preschoolers. My 2 year old mostly liked the pictures and finding the soccer ball in each, while my 5 year old wanted to know more details about the things pictured like a corner kick or header and liked learning how to spell soccer words he'd heard but didn't know how to write. It covers basic gear like cleats and shin guards, people like a team, coach, ref, and goalie, and concepts like goal, yellow card, header, kick, pass, save, and more. It'd be a fun gift for soccer lovers in the under 4 crowd, or as a shower present for pregnant soccer aficionados!(If interested, my full review is here: <http://crunchyconservativemommy.blogspot.com/2015/06/my-first-sports-board-book-series.html>)

My 2 and 1/2 year old grandson loves the book. He even sat through a FaceTime reading.

Great book for introducing toddlers to the game, my son loves it!!!

Excellent book! My grandson loved it. Good first learning tool!

My 18 month old is obsessed with this book!

my 23 mth old grandson loves it
