Little Basketball (Little Sports)

Synopsis

Board Books for Little Sports! Now even the smallest of fans can enjoy a book about their favorite sport. Rhyming riddles accompanied by colorful artwork help introduce the game's simplest, most basic elements. Brad Herzog lives on California's Monterey Peninsula with his wife, Amy, and his two sons, Luke and Jesse. As a freelance writer, he has won several awards from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education, including a Grand Gold Medal for best magazine article of the year. Brad has published more than two dozen books, including two memoirs about his travels through small-town America. A graduate of the Columbus College of Art & Design in Columbus, Ohio, Doug Bowles has been a freelance illustrator for 20 years. In addition to Doug's illustrations for children, he enjoys working with a wide range of clients in the advertising, corporate and editorial communities. His work has been selected many times in the Society of Illustrators West competition, and he has had several gallery showings. Doug lives in Leawood, Kansas, with his wife and two children.

Customer Reviews

Bought this one and a few others in the series for my sons 1st birthday. They are a sturdy cardboard and have bright pictures just like the photos showed. He can drop them chew on them and they withstand the torture! Good product great price.

It is short and sweet my 3 year old loves it it is not a story it is little riddles to guess the answer to. It is hard so it is great for the little ones. My son loves Bball so nothing is bad when it involves that.

My toddler kept making me read Steve Likes To Shoot (Little Ballers Of The World Book 1) over and over again. He was completely obsessed. I realized, if I could keep him reading by staying with the basketball theme it was a win win. We both love to answer the riddles.

My son loves reading this book. He enjoys being able to guess the answers to the riddles. It has just the right amount of words per page to hold his attention until the next flip.

Our 18mo twins love their basketball book! It's a rhyme/riddle book suitable for kids up to kindergarten age! I will order the other sports books in the collection soon!

These "Little" books are just right for preschool children. The text is concise and lyrical and they provide teachable information about the subject.

This is a cute little book. The riddles help kids remember the basics of the game and the colorful pictures keep my toddler interested.

Great book for kids who love basketball. The rhymes were fun for me to read to my kids. Sturdy board book.
