Good book, same level as the adult all in one level 2 book. Lots of great Christmas songs. Large print for the music. I am just finishing the adult level 2 book, and these songs are at my level. (they take practice and time to learn. I cannot just play them. However, not too hard.) I am enjoying the book.

I ordered this book before Christmas because I had progressed beyond L1 and I really enjoy spending the month of December practicing Christmas music only. This book was perfect for an early intermediate student and it has enough music that I will have new holiday music for several years to come. The arrangements are more satisfying for an adult student than the previous level. I highly recommend it.

Good for an elementary-level student like me, an adult who has been taking piano lessons for about a year and a half. Some pieces are fairly easy; others are very challenging and beyond my skill level. Thus, the book is one that can grow as my skills grow. The song choices are good and traditional. It's hard to find anything to fault with this book. A great choice for just about anyone learning to play the piano.

I have been teaching piano for 48 years and I especially love these books (for ALL ages of all pianistic agility) ... both books one and two!!! Thank you Fabers!... that's why I order them in May/June ... then I have them readily available for November/ December season.

So pleasantly pleased with this book. I bought it in March with the hopes of being able to play these wonderful old songs by Christmas. I'm very happy with the Faber books. All have been great educational tools.
