Who's Who In The Bible

Synopsis

Who's Who in the Bible introduces hundreds of the characters named in the Bible. People appear in sequence, following the Bible's storyline, and are also grouped thematically, such as Moses and the Israelites, The Kings of Judah, and The Twelve Disciples. Biographical entries for more than 400 Bible characters are grouped thematically. Finely detailed color artworks fit faces to the names, while illustrated feature boxes tell the stories of major personalities such as David and Goliath or Paul the Apostle. Packed with color illustrations and photos showing key events, places, and objects. Chapter references for each character make it easy to look up the relevant texts in the Bible.

No mysteries to this title. It does exactly what it says. It explains who's who in a very logical manner. Don't let the number of pages fool ya'...every page is packed with info and illustrations! I especially enjoyed the range of art work used (different mediums, styles). This is NOT your typical reference book. I thought of placing it on the shelf between the dictionary and the encyclopedias, but it is used more often than those! It is an instant favorite with the kids. They are facinated with the meanings of the names listed with other interesting facts, such as to whom they are related,where they can be found in the Bible and short paraphrases about their role in the Bible. Lastly I must say that I am glad it is a hard back book because I know it will see a lot of wear.

From Aaron to Paul, Adam to Mary, Achan to Judas, Dr. Motyer gives us a great picture of the biblical world, from the temptation and fall to the missionary journeys of Paul, this book is filled with comprehensive information that make you want to read it again and again! A fantastic book!

Terrific for quick reference, and very helpful to help anyone who is teaching Bible lessons, etc. I think everyone would find this book a must have. Our young people find the Bible confusing, this will help them also, so many times through out the Bible, names are repeated, or sounds the same. This book really, really goes hand in hand with reading the Bible. Great for all ages, we can never learn enough, no matter how many times we read the Bible, but this book helps explain who we are reading about. I'd rate it 10+. Hope this helps. Jeanette Storaska

These pictures are so helpful to those children who are very visual and for those who need a start in imagining such people from very long ago. We adore God's word and hope to keep learning fun with this book, of course!

I got this book for our homeschool library and I love it! Children who come to visit in our home often choose this book to look at the pictures. Great for any age if you are just learning the bible's Old Testament!

This book has been incredibly helpful. It has helped to clarify some relationships and exactly who some of the people were. It has also helped my son by having a visual with a brief description.
